

Naked Mole Rat Nachos

From dayrecipe.com

Naked mole rats spend most of their lives in darkness in their underground cities which are built with a series of tunnels and burrows. Like bees, they live in colonies with a queen and a few select males that breed. The remaining residents of the colony are responsible for the rest of the chores.

Ingredients:

- 1/3 cup mild taco sauce
- 3/4 cup shredded cheese (Cheddar, Jack, Mexican, etc)
- 2 cup nacho chips
- sour cream (optional)
- sliced black olives (optional)

Directions:

1. Spread chips in a single layer on a microwave-safe plate.
2. Drizzle taco sauce over chips (to your taste).
3. Sprinkle generous amount of cheese evenly over chips (about $\frac{3}{4}$ cup for 8" plate).
4. Add a few black olive slices (optional).
5. Microwave, uncovered for 30-60 seconds or until cheese melts.
6. Serve with side of sour cream for dipping (optional).
