

Dreamnight

Social Story

There may be a line when you arrive. Waiting is hard.

There will be volunteers in red shirts.
You can ask them questions if you need something.

There is pizza and hotdogs for dinner in the courtyard.

Gluten free items are in the dog haus. There is also a fruit cup stand.

You will be given a stuffed dragon wristband when you enter the courtyard.

There will be a Magician near the Outdoor Bird exhibits. His name is Drew. He is happy to talk to you.

If you don't want to participate, you can keep walking.

There will be different games set up. You can play any that you would like. There is bean bag toss, basketball, cornhole, frog fling, connect four, disc toss, shuffleboard and Jenga.

There will be dancers roaming around the zoo.

You can watch, or you can join in too!

Parts of the zoo are loud, you can wear your headphones if you need them.

Use this map as a guide to noise levels and quiet areas.

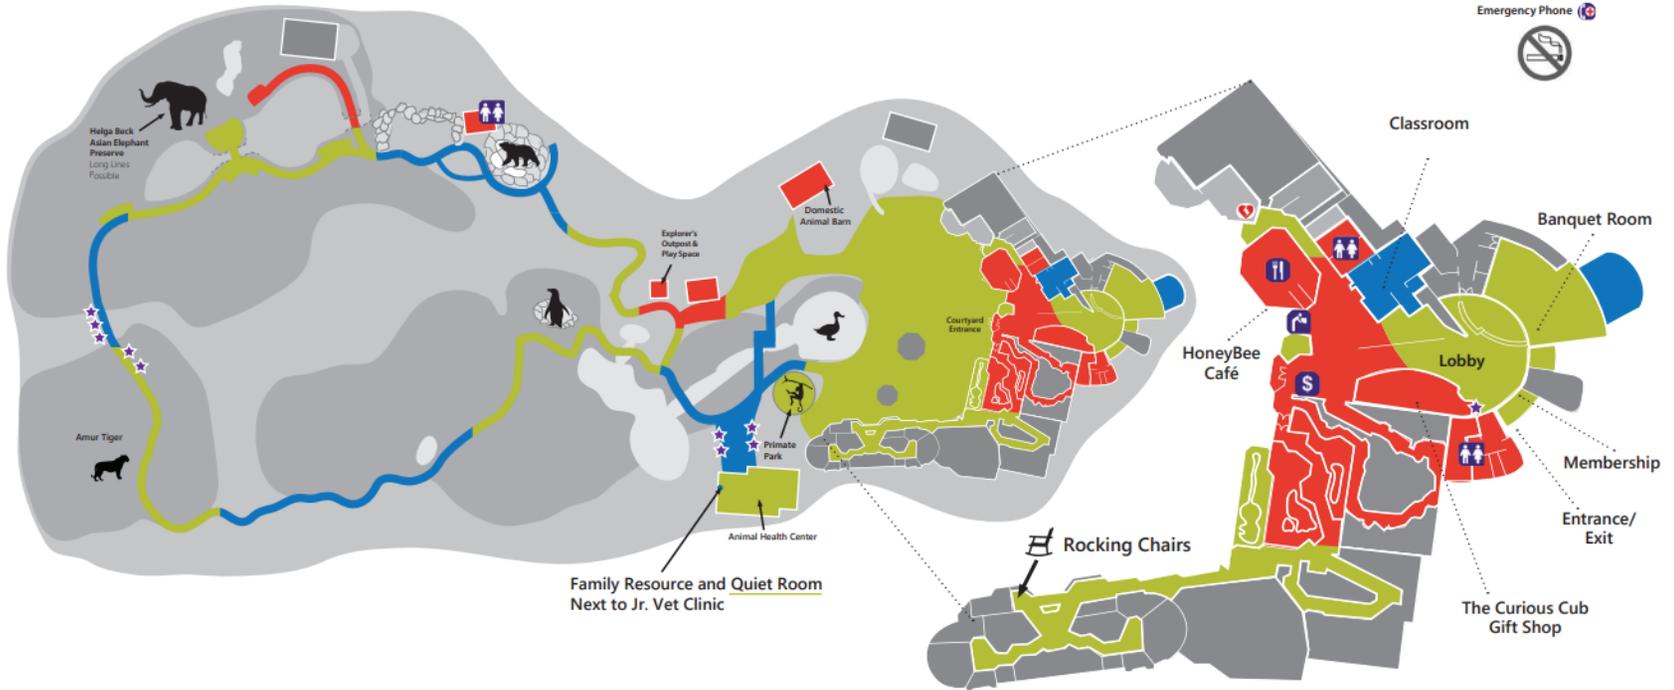

SENSORY MAP AND GUIDE

- SMALL NOISE
- INTERMEDIATE NOISE
- LOTS OF NOISE

★ ALL BENCHES
"BREAK ZONES"

- AED
- Restrooms
- Food
- Drinking Fountain
- Picnic
- ATM
- Emergency Phone
-

There are treats available while you are walking around.

There will be musicians from ACCESS in the gazebo.

There are scheduled times for different activities. You can choose which to attend.

5:30-6:45pm David Clark Trio, affiliates of AccessCNY, performance in Gazebo

5:45pm Drew's Magic at Explorer's Outpost

6:00pm Keeper Talk about Bjorn the Andean Bear

6:15pm Dance Arts Advocates Performance (location TBD)

6:30pm Keeper Talk about Elephants

6:45pm Drew's Magic at Explorer's Outpost

7:00pm Keeper Talk about Tigers

7:15pm Dance Arts Advocates Performance (location TBD)

7:00-7:45pm David Clark Learning Center Ensemble, affiliates of AccessCNY, performance in Gazebo

7:30pm Keeper Talk at Primate Park